

Mounting guide for articulated operators on outswing gates

- Mount the operator into the driveway opening
- Make sure that the arm is not straight
- For larger gates use an extended arm
- Ground stops will be required for the closed position and recommend for the open position unless operators with limit switches are used.